DIANE DUNCAN-GOLDSMITH

“

In June 2012, after 25 years as Director of School Nutrition Services for the Iowa City Community School District, she retired from her position. After retirement she worked at Kansas State University, Manhattan, KS as a research scientist on a consumer family food safety project. She then worked as a project coordinator on a food safety research project at Iowa State University. She then worked as a wellness dietitian for a Team Nutrition project in Iowa.

She has been active with the School Nutrition Association Iowa (SNAI) and the Academy of Nutrition and Dietetics, with a focus on legislative priorities.

She is a member of the League of Women Voters Johnson County, Iowa serving as Membership chair. She is also Membership Chair for LWV UMRR and Board member of Iowans for Gun Safety.

She grew up in Moline, IL and regardless of where she has lived, it has always been near a river; currently living only a couple of blocks away from the Iowa River. She and her husband have three lovely daughters and two wonderful granddaughters. She and her husband enjoy their dog walks, biking and traveling.
